

3rd Asian Women's U23 Volleyball Championship 2019

Dear Athletes,

The 2019 3rd Asian Women's U23 Volleyball Championship (U23) will be conducted in Hanoi (Vietnam) July 13th-21st 2019.

Volleyball Australia (VA) is now calling for expressions of interest from female Indoor Volleyball athletes who would like to be considered for selection to compete as members of the Australian Team to this event.

To be eligible for selection by VA to represent Australia at the "3rd Asian Women's U23 Volleyball Championship", athletes must:

- a. have a current and valid Australian Passport, with at least six months of validity beyond the period of stay (expiry date on or after 28th February 2020)
- b. be born on or after January 1st, 1997
- c. not have represented another country in any sport since 01/01/2017;
- d. be registered members of a State Affiliate of the VA.
- e. commit to the financial conditions related to the participation of the event in case of selection;
- f. not have any outstanding debts with VA. For clarification on your individual position, please contact directly the VA Performance Manager.

Indicative cost for the international component of this event is between 3,200 $ and 4,000 $.

We anticipate the players will be required to be available from July 8th (earliest possible date for preparation camp) to July 22nd. Domestic activity will be held in Canberra.

Interested athletes should complete the online Google document and return it to VA as soon as possible, but no later than March 1st 2019.

To assist the Selection Panel in making their decision, applicants are highly encouraged to provide video footage of their recent performances.
